Speaker: Ir C. K. Ng

BIM Director, Build.IT Limited

CEO, dRoW Limited

Ir C K Ng is a Civil Engineer, GIS and utility specialist and BIM/Construction IT consultant. He has over 30 years civil engineering experience before setting up his BIM consultancy 5 years ago. During his engineering career, Ir Ng spent most of his career as Engineer's Representative (ER) for many public infrastructure construction projects. Safety is of course one of the major duties of ER. Ir Ng is currently carrying out research and promoting digital construction.

Abstract :

In line with the Construction 2.0, DevB has just issued the Technical Circular, TC(W) No. 3/2020 – Digital Works Supervision System (DWSS) which applies to capital works contracts with pre-tender estimate exceeding $300 million and to be tendered on after 1 April 2020. In paragraph 7.1.3 of the said TC(W), the DWSS requires the Contractor to provide a server- or cloud-based Web and Mobile Apps for, among other site records, Site Safety Records. Site Safety Records shall include (i) safety inspection checklists to record inspection results and the associated photographs of the weekly and monthly safety walk inspection and environmental inspection; and (ii) safety performance records to record accident rate statistic, LD/MD improvement and suspension notice, conviction record, and other relevant information with reference to the proforma for Contractor's Monthly Report on Safety Performance. C K Ng will explain the details of the TC(W) with respect to the requirements of the Apps and Site Safety Records and share experience on the implementation of such Apps.
